Eve Plumb – New Work released May 16 at Pure Color Gallery

Pure Color Gallery will host once again a one-woman show of Eve Plumb's original paintings.

Laguna Beach, CA – In November 2005, Eve Plumb's original still-life paintings were released to the public at Pure Color Gallery in Laguna Beach. This two week show resulted in Plumb being picked up for permanent representation by Wynne-Falconer Gallery, in Chatham, MA. Due to her presence in Wynne-Falconer two other locations; Bonner David Galleries located in Scottsdale, Arizona and Gallery 1401 located in Chattanooga, Tennessee have picked up her paintings.

While the technology to make reproductions exist, Plumb has only released two lithographs of her work, Melrose Avenue and Sunset Blvd. These pieces are seven color lithographs on Papier D'Arches printed and hand proofed at Atelier Ettinger in New York City. Each piece is limited to an edition of 500 and the plates have been effaced. To date, Plumb is not ready to part with the originals, so they remain in her personal collection.

"I'm painting day and night" says Plumb, in preparation for her upcoming show once again at Pure Color Gallery in Laguna Beach. The former actor has made an impressive transition from one art form to another, making painting her current full-time career. "The appeal of Plumb's work is that she invites the viewer in on quiet moments of her daily life. Should she find herself having a cup of coffee and the moment special, she photographs it for future consideration. Her point of view is pleasing and enticing to the viewer." says RonDee Kelly, director of Pure Color gallery.

Plumb's paintings will be shown May 16 through May 31. The artist reception will take place Saturday, May 17 from 7:00 pm until 10:00 pm (public is welcome). For further information, please telephone Pure Color Gallery at 949-497-1129. The gallery is located at 570 S. Coast Highway in Laguna Beach, the hours are noon-5:00pm daily for Plumb's show.
